

NYC Fair Fare Program for Half-Price Transportation

Alternate Name:

Category: Delivery/Transport

Organization:

Description: Apply to the NYC city program to help people who live in New York City with low incomes manage their transportation costs. Eligible New York City residents can apply receive a 50% discount on subway and eligible bus fares or Access-A-Ride fares. Applications require submitting personal information related to identity, residency, and income. Fair Fares NYC will not ask about your status or record any information regarding immigration status.

Phone: 311

Extension:

Url: <https://www1.nyc.gov/site/fairfares/index.page>

Additional Info

Application Process: Fair Fares NYC will not ask about your status or record any information regarding immigration status. To be eligible, applicants must be: - Between (and including) the ages of 18 and 64; - In a household that meets the income guidelines for the Fair Fares NYC program; - Not receiving full carfare from the Department of Social Services/Human Resources Administration (DSS/HRA) or any other NYC agency; - If choosing the Fair Fares NYC subway and bus discount, are not currently participating or eligible to participate in any other transportation discount program.

Wait Time:

Fees:

Accreditations:

Licenses:

Address:

Details

Mutual Aid NYC